HAIR: HAIR:

Mr. B. Schwartz has just arrived here with a large stock of human hair, consisting of switches, curls, puffs, braids, etc., and will sell it below cost price. Ladies will do well to embrace the opportunity, as Mr. Schwartz will remain here but two days. Call at the Ormsby House, room No. 43, on first floor. [ADV.]

Dr. WATKINS, finding it necessary on account of failing health, to take a rest, and be absent from the city for a few weeks, left for San Francisco last evening. To those who may need his professional services, during his temporary absence, Dr. Watkins recommends their application to Dr. T. R. Grindley. See card elsewhere in the APPEAL of to-day.

Messrs. MORRIS & Co., desirous of making room for a new stock, will sell dry goods at reduced prices. Ladies will doubtless find it for their interest to give them a call. See their new advertisement in our paper of this morning.

THE Ivy Social Club propose to give another moonlight party at Treadway's picnic hall on the 17th instant. This will be the second one of the kind given here. The first was a grand success.

WALLEY'S HOT SPRINGS.—Our townsman, James Hunt, will to-morrow take charge of Walley's Hot Springs, as Superintendent. Mr. Hunt is widely known and will doubtless increase the popularity of that establishment.

The Grangers and Silver Stars.

These two base ball clubs met Sunday, on Treadway's field, in the first of a series of games for the championship. Notwithstanding the warmth of the day, quite a number of the admirers of the national game assembled to witness the science of our ball-tossers. The favorite umpire, Mr. S. H. Day, was chosen, and game called at 1:29 p. m., with the Stars at the bat. In the first inning the Stars shone brilliantly, scoring six runs. The Grangers came to bat, and escaped a close call for a whitewash by making one run. The Stars were evidently elated over their success so far, but, alas! were finally doomed to disappointment. In the second inning they stepped down and out with only one run scored. The Grangers followed with a call for four runs. The Stars then came in on the third inning, but only succeeded in adding one more run to their score. The Grangers again came to bat and went out with five more runs added to their score. This gave them the lead, which they maintained until the close of the game. But two whitewashes were made, one on each side. The playing, generally speaking, we must say, was rather poor, although there were some fine catches made on both sides. The Grangers evidently think that the Stars have monopolized the championship long enough, and will undoubtedly strain every nerve to walk off with it this time. We have no choice between the clubs, but hope that the Stars will polish up a little, and make an effort to shine as brilliantly in the future as they have in the past, for it is well known that the Stars have long shone upon the horizon of base ball fame without one false light in their shining, and to allow their lustre to be dimmed now, would be bad indeed. "We want to be a granger and with the grangers stand," a noble looking fellow, with a base ball in our hand. We noticed some feelings of hostility expressed between the clubs. This should be done away with as it is injurious to all concerned. Following is the score:

The New Directory.
John D. Bethel, publisher of the directory of Storey, Ormsby and Washoe counties, arrived in Virginia from San Francisco yesterday, and has the books ready for delivery. The new directory is a well printed and substantially bound volume of 350 pages, and beside the names and residences of inhabitants, contains much valuable information in regard to the mines and mills, water works and other important enterprises. It is also prefaced by an interesting sketch of "Washoe," and the early history and settlement of the country. The work is thorough and complete in all its details, and supplies a want that has been seriously felt for the last year, by all business men in the community.—Virginia Chronicle.

THE NEW CARSON PAPER, the Daily Evening Herald, made its appearance last evening. It is a six column paper published by Wells Drury & Co. C. A. V. Putnam, an old and competent journalist, who needs no introduction to the newspaper reading public, is understood to be the editor. The salutatory says: "A journal to be successful ought to be more than a mere collection of news. It should be a just and fearless critic of public men, and possess an adaptability to the impulses of the community to which it appeals for support. It should express intelligent views and positive convictions upon all public measures as they arise. Upon political parties as they exist to-day we shall bestow little praise or censure at present."

SUNDAY night appeared to be a gala time among the lovers of the ardent, judging from the number we saw in close communion with mother earth. One, in particular, we noticed, who lay upon the bare ground, down lower than stocks, and as limber as an eel. He was kindly cared for by a couple of our city protectors, who shouldered him and marched, marched away—to the county depository.

THE extreme warm weather of the last few days has been a source of great trouble to our extensive "inflation" men, who have slowly begun to dissolve, or melt away. Fears are entertained for them if this cremation weather lasts much longer.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias.

of the jurisdiction of Nevada, convened at the Masonic Hall at 11 a. m. yesterday. The following Grand officers were present: C. H. Goddard, Grand Chancellor; J. P. Meder, Grand Prelate; C. E. Loughton, Grand K. of R. & S.; L. A. Frisbie, Grand Outer Guard. The Grand Chancellor made the following appointments pro tem: H. D. Lindsay, G. V. C.; S. W. Powell, G. M. of A.; George Bettenger, G. I. G. The following Representatives were present: Nevada Lodge, No. 1, S. H. Goddard, C. Becker, George Bettenger; Damon, No. 2, J. A. Johnson, George Tufts, P. H. Mulcahy; Carson, No. 4, George Gillson, C. E. Loughton, J. P. Meder, J. C. Bunker, L. A. Frisbie; Lincoln, No. 6, S. W. Powell, H. D. Lindsay, J. B. McKenzie; Beatrice, No. 7, W. H. Davenport; Amity, No. 8, S. B. Smith, C. W. Jones. The Lodge will be in session at 10 a. m. to-day.

In the Justice Court, yesterday, the case of two members of the Granger Base Ball Club, charged with assault and disturbing the peace, came up for trial. It appears that they had imbibed the ardent too freely in their elation over the victory gained in the game with the Silver Stars, and this led them into trouble. They pleaded guilty to the charge, were fined $50 each, which they paid. May this depletion of their exchequer prove a corresponding gain to them in wisdom. Also two men found drunk upon the street were given, one fifteen and the other twenty days in jail. In their case it was not the first offense, and their services will again be required on our streets. In serving out a previous sentence they proved good workers. Had they refused to work on that occasion their sentence would doubtless have been more severe for the subsequent offense.

In the District Court yesterday, in the case of Boskowitz vs. Davis and others, suit in relation to ownership of, or interest in the proceeds of, land situated at Lake Tahoe, the testimony was completed. The case, we believe, will be considered to-day. The case of E. D. Sweeney brought before the Court on the complaint of H. P. Phillips for violation of water rights in contempt of a former decision of the Court, also comes up for hearing to-day.

ARCHERY.—Mrs. L. R. Knowles, of this city, carried away the prize at the Miners' Union Picnic on Saturday last. This is the second time Mrs. K. has secured the archery prize in this State, and she was equally successful in her old home in New Brunswick, where she took nine first class and two second class prizes out of eleven. The prize in question is a beautiful gold arrow.—Nevada Tribune.

MR. BONNIFIELD and a lawyer from Omaha, who recently visited Carson on business connected with the extradition of W. McK. Denny, detained at Winnemucca on a charge of embezzlement, have returned to Winnemucca. We understand Mr. Bonnifield was unsuccessful in obtaining a writ of habeas corpus in favor of his client, and that the fugitive from Nebraska will be returned to that State for trial.

FALLING.—The water in the Carson River is now falling rapidly. Last week the old Eureka mill hung up half its stamps and discharged half its hands. It is believed the mill will have to suspend operations entirely after awhile, until the fall rise occurs. The other big water mills on the river will be obliged to follow suit.—Evening Herald.

SIR KNIGHT CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS POWERS, editor of the Reno Journal, was in attendance upon the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias in session here yesterday, and favored us with a call. We are under obligations to him for information in relation to proceedings of the Lodge published elsewhere.

Rev. Mr. Norton preached at the Presbyterian church on Sunday last, and the Sunday previous. The Reverend gentleman is en the way from San Francisco to the East, remaining here to supply the pulpit of the Presbyterian church for a few weeks pending negotiations for obtaining a pastor to remain here permanently.

YESTERDAY afternoon, a gentleman on Carson street, who had partaken too freely of the "Oh! be joyful," in a playful endeavor to mop up the sidewalk with a friend, lost his equilibrium and fell upon his face, barking the same in several places and starting the claret to flow freely from his objective nasal appendage.

THE new fence, to be placed around the Capitol building, has been delivered upon the grounds to await erection. When put in place it will add very much to the appearance of the Capitol and grounds.

FRUIT vendors from California are quite plenty in our city, appearing almost daily upon our streets with loads of apples, grapes, pears, etc. They claim the patronage of our citizens upon the plea of cheap sales and a good article.

MR. E. B. RYAN, a prominent officer of the O. P. R. B. Co., was in town yesterday, in company with Superintendent Yerington of the V. & T.

Death of Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Frank Denver.

The Virginia Chronicle of last evening makes the following announcement: A private dispatch was received in this city yesterday, announcing the death of ex-Lieutenant-Governor Frank Denver, in San Francisco. His family are at present in that city.

G. M. MATHEWS, Tailor, and W. A. Prior, Haberdasher, will positively leave for Virginia Wednesday morning. Any person wishing their measure taken for clothes or shirts, will please call at room five, Ormsby House.

Mr. Mighels, editor of the Appeal, went to Lake Tahoe, on Sunday, seeking health and recreation. He took with him his two oldest boys, Harry and Phil. It is probable he will be absent a week or more.

THE Nevada Tribune appeared last evening in a new dress—new type throughout. Looks neat and seems prosperous, does our evening contemporary.

Hon. Thomas Wren, from Eureka, is in Carson on legal business, which will be considered in the Supreme Court to-day.

THE FAVORITE.—The Bank Exchange Saloon corner of King and Ormsby streets, is becoming the favorite resort of this city. The great attraction is Frederickburg Beer, while the best of wines, liquors and cigars are also sold at the bar. A first class Pedro game for the amusement of guests, a cold lunch at all hours and hearty good cheer, are all its recommendations to public favor. R. R. Brown is the proprietor.
